Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou,

O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell, Satan and

God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

As we gather for Holy Mass this weekend, we do so as Catholics and Americans. We observe and celebrate as the latter, MOTHERS' DAY! I wish all the Moms of the parish a very happy and grateful day. When one has lost their Mom, it brings a new poignancy to today's holiday. We thank YOU, Mom, for all you have done for us and are for us!

It would be rather disheartening if we saw the glorious Solemnity we observe today, The Ascension of the Lord Jesus Christ, as merely the day on which the Lord left this world for good. As a matter of fact, we would be in some rather distinguished company if we did indeed do so... that of the Apostles! As they stood gazing into the sky into which our Lord had just ascended, they were disheartened. Jesus had become Incarnate; had become Man, in order that man kind might find salvation and eternal life. He had suffered an ignominious death by crucifixion. He had miraculously returned through the power of the Resurrection and endowed the Apostles with the powers of Holy Orders, to confect the Holy Eucharist, to forgive sins, to cure the sick and be evangelists of His truth and life. Now, it seems, He had left them. What were they to do? What are we to do?

I think it's easy to simply do what the Apostles initially did; stand and gaze into the sky. At times the world can seem pretty overwhelming. We don't know which way to turn; what path or decision to take. Quite often, if we care to admit it, these feelings arise because we're trying to "go it alone." We're trying to live our Catholic Faith forgetting the great promise Jesus made to the twelve and to each one of us!

His promise of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost and His promise to remain with His Holy Bride, the Church, for all time, is the promise the Apostles came to believe and it is the same for each one of us. Today, on Ascension, we celebrate our Lord's promise to both remain and return!

It is a celebration of great faith and a celebration of great promise and hope! It is truly a celebration of the True Church in the world, the vehicle of Sanctifying Grace and Guardian of all that Jesus taught and willed for His chosen people!

So, let us celebrate this great Solemnity with great faith! Remember, Jesus promised us His joy; that our joy might be complete. The coming of the Holy Spirit and the continued presence of Jesus in the Holy Mass and teaching Magisterium of the Church, is our joy! Laudate, Jesus Christus!

May our Risen and Ascended Lord Jesus Christ, continue to bless us all! AMEN!

Father Michael Antkowiak

Thank you, parishioners of Mary Queen of Peace and members of our Knights of Columbus, for supporting us in our effort to learn and practice the corporal works of mercy.

This year we put together 153 individual toiletry kits and collected boxes of supplies for distribution to the homeless in our community (valued at $1,700). The kits include a toothbrush, toothpaste, Chapstick, Kleenex tissues, socks, a snack, and a letter of hope. Kits and supplies are delivered to Saints Peter and Paul Cathedral downtown and will be available for distribution to the 200 homeless people that go to the Cathedral each day for food and support.

With sincere thanks, the 5th grade class at Mary Queen of Peace.
