13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly.

So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." - Mk 5:36bc, 38-39 defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

At Mass this weekend, we meet two familiar people in the Gospel: Jairus the synagogue official and the woman afflicted with some sort of hemorrhages for twelve years.

When we hear their stories I think we usually marvel at Jesus' miracles of curing her and raising Jairus' daughter from the dead. We should marvel! But, we also need to reflect and listen for something else.

These two ordinary people were people of tremendous faith. They approached Jesus humbly. They came to Him fully trusting that He would hear them and help them. This kind of trust in the Lord Jesus is the continuing challenge for all of us! Let us pray that we will be unafraid to approach the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus in our needs and in intercession for those who ask for our prayers, trusting He will come to our aid!

How many of you remember as a child thinking that once the Fourth of July was celebrated, summer was somehow "over?" But, remember we normally did not start back until after Labor Day. The poor kids today start as early as the end of July in some schools. I'm sorry, but that's just wrong! Maybe many like it that way though. At least schools have AC now...unlike the "good ole days." The sisters would tell us: "Don't think about it and you won't be hot." Wrong, sister! One big old fan roaring away in the corner of the room and that was it. The lucky kids that sat there had it made. Oh, to be young.

Yes, hard to believe but it is Fourth of July time already. Here's another we heard growing up offered from our elders..."Wait until you get older. The older you are, the faster time goes." Of course we thought they were deranged or something! Funny thing is, the elders were right. NOW, we are the elders who say the same thing to our youngsters. The Holy Mass will be offered on the Fourth of July at 9:00am! Let us give thanks to God for our country, our people and our blessings!

God bless us all and God bless America!

Volunteers Needed for the National Eucharistic Congress

The National Eucharistic Congress (NEC) is in need of several hundred volunteers for the upcoming event taking place in downtown Indianapolis July 17-21, 2024. There are many full-time and part-time volunteer opportunities available that we are asking for your assistance in helping to fill. The scope of the daily commitment for full time dedicated volunteers is from Tuesday, July 16 at 9:00am until Sunday, July 21 at 2:00pm. (This includes a full day of volunteer training prior to the kick-off of the event.) For those who are unable to serve the entire time, daily part-time volunteer shifts in a variety of roles are open. The greatest area of need is full-time volunteer ushers. This role entails greeting guests at sessions either in Lucas Oil Stadium or the other large programming halls at the Convention Center. The benefit of this job is that ushers get to hear much of the Congress programming for free! This is a great opportunity for young adults, college students, retirees, or anyone who is looking for an affordable way to be a part of this historic event. For more information on volunteer opportunities, and to register as a volunteer, please visit <https://>

Eucharistic Congress Carpool

If you are planning on attending and would like to be included, please call Helen Corbitt at 317-626-5963 or email mjcorbitt@comcast.net with the days that you are registered and would like transportation. The Congress is a few weeks away!
