God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel, our Lord sends His Apostles out on a mission. This mission is one in which all of us who are baptized are called to participate on a daily basis.

While we may not all be called to drive out demons (although we may think we know a few) or cure people, we are still called to share the truth of Jesus Christ.

When you think about it, there really are a variety of ways one can "cure" another person. Sometimes all it takes is a smile and a nod of the head or an inquiry as to how the other person is feeling. Showing basic Christian kindness and respect goes a long way in offering someone the needed light they may need.

At times Catholics are a little hesitant about sharing the faith with another person. We don't want to come across as pushy or "judgmental." But, it is precisely in sharing the beauty and mystery of the Catholic faith that we follow the command of Jesus and go out and bring others to Him and to His Church. The days of Catholics being somehow timid or even seemingly ashamed of being Catholic are past! For those of us old enough to remember Confirmation in the "old days," we were taught by the sisters that we would now become "Soldiers of Christ." That image and truism always has stayed with me.

St. Paul tells us to proclaim Christ "in season and out of season." On the surface that seems sort of an odd thing to say doesn't it? He is actually telling us that there is no time in which we are not to proclaim with conviction and compassion, the invitation of Jesus to "Come, follow Me."

As you all go about your lives in the marketplaces of our world, remember, you take Christ with you! Your Catholic faith is a part of you, which all should know and see. Remember, little things mean a lot. You may never know what a word or gesture on your part did for another's journey of faith!

Have a prayer-full week!

WOMEN'S CARE CENTER

BABY SHOWER!

The Friends of St. Anthony will be conducting a Baby Shower for the Women's Care Center during the month of July. The Women's Care Center provides free, confidential counseling, support and education for pregnant women. (Abortions are not provided.) It also is the state's largest pregnancy center which helps empower women to choose life, have healthier pregnancies and receive support from cradle to kindergarten. Each year, thousands of women walk through their doors in Indianapolis. 1 in 6 babies born in Indianapolis begin at Women's Care Center and it is through our support that these moms are loved and their babies nurtured.

We will be collecting brand new baby items and clothing for newborns through 5T, as well as baby wipes and diapers sizes 3,4,5, and 6. Also, included below is an Amazon link of the most popular items used for the Crib Club baby program. https://www.amazon.com/hz/wishlist/?list=9YPJKT716NNM?ref=wl_share

All items may be dropped off in the blue bin located in the Narthex by July 28th. If you have any questions, please contact Beth Simpson at 303-506-3454 or by email at: oldbluechair9102627@gmail.com

On behalf of the babies currently expected to be born to the moms supported by the Women's Care Center, we thank you for your support.
