20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me.”
- Jn 6:56-57

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

We continue this week on our Eucharistic journey with Jesus.

Let us pray today that the words of profound truth, mystery and life we encounter at this Mass, will find fertile soil in our hearts and souls! There are at times, periods in our lives when we hear the awesome teaching on the Holy Eucharist without truly understanding or giving sufficient reflection to this most central and important truth of Christ Jesus.

As we go forth from Mass today, pray that we truly savor the words and truths proclaimed. When we allow the Eucharistic Presence of Jesus to penetrate our hearts, we become more and more attuned to His presence throughout our daily lives. Quite honestly, if we believe the words of Jesus and, if in the state of grace receive Him in Holy Communion, we cannot remain the same. We are called to give witness to how the Holy Eucharist makes all the difference in the world, in our lives. If this is not happening, then we need to examine just how much we are allowing the Blessed Sacrament to impact our lives.

I love this quote from Redemptorist Father Michael Miller:

"When the Most Blessed Sacrament of the altar is not revered and loved, scandals will abound, faith will languish and the Church will mourn." "On the other hand, if this Sacrament be worthily frequented, peace will reign in Christian hearts, the devil will lose power and souls will be sanctified."

Sometimes a person asks me "Father, why do you preach almost every Sunday on the Eucharist in some fashion?" I answer them: "How can I not!" I mention this, not out of self-praise or anything like it. To be honest with you, throughout the preparation for the recent Eucharistic Revival held in Indy, I did think of how often I do mention the Eucharist in my homilies. In my own imperfect way, I do think it absolutely necessary that all priests should mention the Gift given to us by Jesus as often as possible. The Holy Eucharist IS the "source and summit" of our Catholic lives. Everything, and I do mean everything, we do as a parish, MUST flow from, and to, the Holy Eucharist and the celebration of the Mass.

May Our Eucharistic Lord continue to bless us, our parish and the Church!

Father Michael Miller

I am the bread of life
