26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.

God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

This weekend, our parish welcomes Fr. Ben Keller who is subbing for me while I am away with Fr. Jim for a few days. Welcome, Father and thanks for being here!

Today's Mass readings advise us to be cautious about the way we live our lives. No big surprise there, right? Even so, St. James warns us of the consequences when greed consumes us in any of its forms.

His message beautifully dovetails into our Lord's words in today's Gospel when He tells us to rid ourselves of anything that causes sin. We need to be careful when hearing these words of Jesus. He does NOT desire us to maim ourselves, which could easily be misinterpreted from the Gospel. His truth points out that we should give nothing the power over us to commit sin. Whatever the sin; whatever the cause, from within or out, we are to never allow sin to reign in our hearts and souls.

Our Lord also brings to our attention once more to the child-like. He uses pretty graphic words in describing the fate of those who cause others to sin. For parents, those who teach the Faith, for priests and catechists, it is particularly poignant. To be quite honest, the example shown us by some Catholic politicians and sadly, some Bishops, falls into our Lord's message as well. Whoever sows the seeds of confusion or dissent among others is leading them astray according to Jesus' words. And, they will be held responsible for that confusion and dissent. It's a sobering thought isn't it?

Have a prayer-full week, everyone!

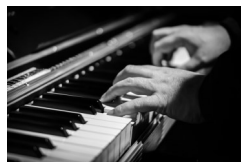

Father Michael Litzard

Many thanks to all those who contributed desserts to the Oktoberfest. There were some really yummy donations.
