31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The scribe said to him, "Well said, teacher. You are right in saying, 'He is One and there is no other than he.'" And when Jesus saw that he answered with understanding, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." - Mk 12:32, 34ab

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

For the last several weeks we have listened to readings that challenged us to use God's gifts wisely and generously. We have been called to place the needs of our neighbor before those of our own desires. Granted, not an easy thing to do.

This week, all of those commands by our Lord are captured within the summation of the commandments offered by Jesus in the Gospel, which is an echo of the first reading. Jesus tells us the greatest commandment is that we love the Lord our God with everything in our being; with everything we have. That means we place ourselves and our treasures at His disposal.

The second commandment is that we love our neighbor as we love our selves. These are the core commandments from which all others flow. Honestly, we need look no further than our own hearts to see that these two great commandments are often ignored do we?

A beautiful image is that of the crucifix. It takes two arms to make the cross on which our Lord was glorified. The vertical beam is our love of God. The horizontal beam is our love of neighbor. It's not either/or, it's both/and.

As we have begun this month of remembrance; these darkening days of November, remember your beloved gone before you in special times of prayer. Make an effort to attend a Daily Mass for them. Say a rosary for them. Make a visit to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament for them. Ask them to pray for you. May their souls rest in peace! The beautiful Communion of the Saints joins together in worship of the Holy Trinity! Each praying for one another...most certainly a note of consolation!

God bless you all!

Father Michael Sutich
