Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives quite a challenge; not only for the "rich young man" but for each of us. He insists, not suggests, that we give all we have to the poor and follow Him. I mean, come on; You can't be serious, Lord!

This may seem impossible and too much to ask, especially when we consider our own true needs in this world. Yet, our Lord is telling us to focus on the needs of others. We are called to "love our neighbor as ourselves," which includes making sacrifices for others.

Of course, our Lord teaches by example, He made the greatest sacrifice...His life...for the life of the world; for our life. That's giving all!

Our Lord is not telling us that possessing things is evil, wrong or unjust. Over the years, His words have been twisted by some resulting in many feeling guilty or ashamed of owning things. As a matter of fact, it was an early heresy that said that it was sinful to own anything! So, Jesus is not telling us to have a gigantic yard sale and become homeless. He is telling us that no-thing should ever take the place He occupies, or should occupy, in our hearts and lives. This is true wisdom, as spoken of in our first reading.

It can be said that knowledge is of man; wisdom is of God. There is a huge difference!

Hard to believe but Fall Break is upon us. You old folks will remember we called it "Teachers' Institute" because the teachers were supposed to attend meetings in Indy. Not sure many ever did though!

Everyone have a prayer-full week and enjoy this beautiful season of Autumn!

May the good God bless and keep you all!

Father Michael Lutzel
