God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

"The Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give His life as a ransom for many." There you have it...the message and life of Jesus Christ.

We are reminded of the sacrifice the Lord Jesus made when He willingly gave up His own life to save us from our sins and death. That eternal truth flies in the face of our society and culture.

We are bombarded with the false idea that we can never have too much of anything. So much in our culture encourages a person to be so focused on "self" that "others" fall by the wayside. You know this is true.

In today's Gospel, we are reminded to reject this line of thought and embrace service to neighbor. The Letter to the Hebrews offers us insight and encouragement as we sometimes struggle to achieve this goal.

Here were some "basics" that I'd like to share.

First, every baptized Catholic is called to be of service to their neighbor in some fashion or another. As Pope Francis reminds us, we believe that the love of God moves the hearts of all to this call and life.

Second, at times this call of discipleship can seem to be too daunting; too much. "What can I do to alleviate hunger, poverty (of both belly and soul)?" is a legitimate question. An important truth: do something for some one; choose one area or activity in which to become involved in service. That's good for us all to remember. We are not asked to do everything; do some-thing!

Third, everything we do as Catholics flows from and to the Holy Eucharist!

Too many "service-people" have lost sight of the indispensable fact that prayer before the Eucharist, participation at Mass, prayer time, are the 'non-negotiables' for ALL service! And, conversely, too many "prayer-people" have lost sight of the fact that our worship and prayer must lead us to service of neighbor.

A good rule to follow is this: for every hour given in service, spend an hour in prayer with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

This weekend, you will find the basket with the All Souls Day envelopes in the vestibule (old narthex). Please feel free to take one, inscribe the names of your loved ones and return it no later than October 28th in the collection basket. These will be inscribed in our parish Book Of Remembrance which will remain in the sanctuary throughout the holy month of November, as we especially remember our deceased relatives and friends. "It is a good and pious thing to pray for the dead." Let us do so with loved memories.

AND, a "heads-up" to not forget the upcoming HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION of ALL SAINTS! This year, the Vigil will be at 5:00pm on October 31st (again, at 5:00 pm as requested by parents) & NOON November 1st...

Gott bless you all!
