He said to them in reply, "What did Moses command you?" They replied, "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss her." But Jesus told them, "Because of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female." - Mk 10:3-6

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that the bond of marriage is a holy one. Honestly, we have to admit that the holiness of this sacred bond and union is overlooked, discounted or even mocked in our ever so modern society. Rather than being defended, the attempt now is to "redefine."

Day after day we witness couples struggling in their relationships; I know I do. Sometimes they choose to sever that sacred bond rather than live the hard work required to restore a trust and love that has perhaps been broken. Of course, one can never make assumptions nor pass objective judgment on any married couple.

As Catholics who celebrate marriage as a Sacrament "instituted by Christ to give grace," we believe Jesus' words: "The two shall become one flesh...Therefore what God has joined together, man must not separate."

I often tell couples in preparation for marriage that it takes much love and hard work to make any marriage faithful and fruitful. At times couples can have that 'stars in the eyes' look that, while sweet, can mask the reality of making a marital relationship last. Our society and almost everything one hears or sees, if not ridiculing marriage, certainly can warp its true meaning, purpose and joy.

There exists two purposes of Christian marriage. Both MUST be present to validate the Sacrament. One, is the unitive aspect; where the two pledge mutual respect, love, acceptance and support. This aspect in turn brings about the second necessary aspect of Christian marriage which is procreative. When either of these is removed or hindered (thus the ban on all forms of artificial contraception), then the sacred bond is severely strained, if not completely broken.

Today's Mass offers us an opportunity to do several things. First, if married, to renew your vows to one another in mutual and lasting fidelity. Second, the opportunity for everyone to pray for couples preparing for marriage and to assist and pray for couples known to be experiencing struggles. Third, to pray for those who have gone through, often times, as the innocent partner, the pain and loss of divorce.

A renewal in the acknowledgement of the sacredness of marriage is a good thing! May the Lord preserve all in Christian marriage and protect the sanctity of all human life from womb to natural death!

Let us pray: "God, may this be so!"
