Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen

God has found me worthy to be a minister of His Gospel, and so when I speak, I strive to please God and not men."

1 Thessalonians 2:4

+Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel, we hear the series of events that will signal the second coming of Christ. "Heaven and earth will pass away," Jesus tells us, "but my words will not pass away."

Jesus is reassuring us that His return will not signal a final end to life. The Lord promises us a life that will endure after this earth passes away. Today's readings are fitting as we experience the ending of another liturgical year and stand on the threshold of another, which will begin with the First Sunday of Advent.

Our Lord's words do, however, give us warning and significant pause for prayer. How will we each appear before Him at His return? What will the "scales" look like regarding our lives? No one is able to answer for our own personal lives and the decisions, for good or bad, which we have made. That, will be our sole responsibility.

Rather than make us paranoid or scared stiff, this fact of our religious lives should make us grateful for the Lord's blessings and our faith! It should make us more cognizant of our actions, words and attitudes in our daily lives! It should make us take our Catholic Faith much more serious than we normally do; its practice, its fervor and its commitment! Apathy and indifference are two of the deadliest sins we each will no doubt present before the throne of God. Today's Gospel gives us an opportunity to prayerfully reflect and re-prioritize if need be....thanks be to God!

Next Sunday we close the Liturgical Year of Grace, 2024 with the SOLEMNITY OF CHRIST THE KING! What a glorious manner in which to close one liturgical year and begin a new Season of Advent the following weekend.

My personal thanks to all for your kind gifts of cards, words and remembrances shown for my birthday this past Veterans' Day! What a great day to celebrate a birthday...I never had to go to school that day! Of course, the Veterans take the first place of honor for us all! I am trying very hard to forget the fact that I celebrated my 70th birthday! Or, as some like to say, I began my 71st year of existence...!

May the good God continue to bless us!

Father Michael Lutted
